The Royal Ballet Galla Performances has historically been the most highly sought after of the RCA Living Stereo releases. Recorded in Kingsway Hall, in 1957, by the legendary Kenneth Wilkinson and the Decca recording team. This title features selections from The Nutcracker Suite, Swan Lake and Sleeping Beauty among others. The performances are conducted by the legendary Ernst Ansermet directing the Royal Opera House Orchestra and the sonics are incomparable. Now for the first time on Classic's Clarity 200g QUIEX SV-P at 45rpms you can hear even more of the low level details that make this amazing recording seem stunningly realistic. This Nine Discs set is package in Classic Records beautiful red boxes.
